RUSSIANS AGAIN ON THE OFFENSIVE

Decisive Defeat of Austro-German Forces is Announced

VERY HEAVY LOSSES

Pressure of Czar's Forces Too Great to Allow Kaiser to Transfer Troops to Western Front.

London, July 9—Resumption of the Russian offense in southern Poland is confirmed in dispatches from Vienna and Petrograd.

South of Lublin, where the Austro-German forces have been sweeping everything before them, a decisive defeat has been administered to the hitherto victorious armies.

So swiftly and thoroughly was the Russian attack delivered that the invaders were forced to withdraw into the hills of Krasnik, and the attempt to advance from the south blocked with tremendous losses on both sides.

Fresh troops from Ivangorod and Brest-Litovsk with heavy artillery and an abundance of ammunition have been delivered upon the front by the Russian railways, and heavy fighting is forcast as the Grand Duke's re-formed lines begin an assault upon the already broken Austrian lines.

The pressure now put on the Austro-Germans by the Czar's troops is so great that British observers say there is little chance for Germnas to detach any of their eastern armies at present for a renewed offensive in the west.

The Russians have made determined attacks on the lower Zlota Lipa but apparently without causing any material change in the situation in that region. West of the Vistula the Austrians stormed the Russian positions with determination, but did not succeed in making an advance.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

Philadelphian Becomes Desperate When Wife Refuses to Return.

Philadelphia, July 9.—Drawing a revolver when his wife refused to return to him, George Butts, said by the police to be an ex-convict, fired five shots at the woman and at a man who attempted to protect her late yesterday afternoon in a rooming house on Seventh street above Callowhill, where she was employed. One bullet lodged in the neck of Howard W. Engals, as he tried to disarm Butts; another just grazed Mrs. Butts and the other three went wild.

Engals was hurried to the Hahnemann Hospital by the Seventh district police, but lost so much blood on the way that his condition is serious. At a late hour physicians had failed to locate the bullet, which is believed to have lodged in his larynx. They applied the X-ray in a futile effort to find the ball.

BRITAIN CONFISCATES CARGO.

Washington Sends Vigorous Protest Against Action.

New York, July 9.—Officers of the Swedish steamer Zamora, which arrived here yesterday, said they had not been permitted to deliver the vessel's cargo of grain and copper at Stockholm, the steamer's destination, but that the steamer had been taken into Kirkwall by a British cruiser, held there 10 days and then sent to Barrow-in-Furness, where the entire cargo had been discharged.

Washington, July 9.—The interest of the Washington Government in the case is held not to be direct. American counsel, however, in London, have protested vigorously against the action of the British prize court.

TO ARM ALL MERCHANTMEN

Lord Cecil Tells Commons They'll Defend Themselves

London, July 9—"Merchant vessels of a belligerent power are entitled by established and uninterrupted usage of the sea to carry and use armament in self-defense," said Lord Robert Cecil, Parliamentary Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in reply to a question put by Commander Carlyon W. Bellairs in the House of Commons yesterday.

"Several neutral governments," Lord Cecil said, "were communicated in this matter at the outbreak of the war and several more have been approached since a circumstances suggested. The principle of merchant ships carrying arms for self-defense has been generally recognized and British ships so armed have been trading regularly with the various countries since an early stage of the war."

Commander Bellairs' question was whether in view of the unusual character of the German attacks on unarmed merchant vessels, the Government would ask all neutral vessels armed for purposes of defense only with a gun in the stern, to trade with their ports in spite of the fact that they carried a gun.

MOPS HIS FACE, ARRESTED

Chinaman Disguised as Negro Almost Gets Past Officer

Had not a venerable "darky" mopped his face as he came off the steamship Brooklyn last week, the population of Chinatown would have been increased by two Chinamen and four cans of opium.

The story came out when Commissioner Gray, in the Federal Building in Brooklyn, held Bularon Rendon, a Mexican, for the grand jury on a charge of smuggling Charles Low and Charles Sing into this country from Mexico. Rendon, according to the Chinamen, stowed them away in the storeroom of the ship, and when the Camaguey reached her pier here blackened their faces and hands, put whiskers on their chins and sent them ashore as seafaring Ethiopians.

But the Chinamen were warm, and as they slouched down the dock one of them mopped his face with the back of his hand, leaving a streak of yellow.

Two United States custom inspectors came along about that time. (New York Times)

FIRE "STEAMED" OUT.

Atlantic Transport Liner Nears Halifax Today.

New York, July 9.—The fire aboard the Atlantic Transport liner Minnehaha is "apparently steamed out," Captain Claret reported to the company's offices here, in a wireless message received at 9:08 a. m. today.

The message did not state the liner's location at the time it was sent, nor did it clear up the mystery concerning the origin of the explosion in the ammunition carrier's hold. It was relayed to New York through the Camperdown, Nova Scotia, station.

The steamer was twenty miles off Sambro in a thick fog at 7 o'clock this morning, according to a dispatch from Halifax. A heavy rain was also falling, and it was believed the fire aboard the vessel was out. The time of the arrival at Halifax was uncertain owing to the fact that the steamer would have to slow up as it neared the harbor.

LOST IN A MINE.

Colliery Worker Mathchless, With Lamp Out.

Scranton, Pa., July 9.—When Lawrence Brady, aged 60 years, went into the Johnson mine at Dickson City Tuesday to take out his tools he forgot to take matches with him, and as a result came near losing his life. His lamp was blown out, and with no means of lighting it he wandered around in the dark and lost his way. The more he sought a way of leaving the mine the farther he penetrated into the old workings, and soon was hopelessly lost.

His failure to return home gave alarm, and a party of miners was organized to search the mine. He was found yesterday in a half-starved condition.

HOLT'S DEATH SAID TO BE MYSTERIOUS

Allegation That He Was Shot Down in Cell in Jail at Mineola

"OFFICIAL" VERSION

Governor Whitman Orders Thorough Investigation of Suspicious Circumstances—Body in Texas.

New York, July 9—Frank Holt was shot down in his cell in the Mineola jail, and did not commit suicide, Jeremiah Ryan, the aged keeper who was in charge of the peace fanatic, declares.

William E. Hults, warden, went on a "vacation" shortly before this charge was made, failing to ask leave of his superiors.

Ryan has come out in a bitter attack on Hults, District Attorney Lewis J. Smith, and Guy F. Cleghorn, jail physician, whom he accuses in an interview in the New York Press of trying to put the blame on him, asserting that they made up among themselves an "official" explanation of Holt's death, and then told him how it happened.

Governor Whitman has ordered a full report on the suspicious circumstances surrounding the supposed suicde from Dstrct Attorney Smth and is prepared to exert every effort to sift the matter to the bottom.

Meanwhile, Holt's body, bearing a wound in the right temple closely resembling a bullet hole, for which Nassau county officials have given three different explanations, has been shipped to Texas and, the authorities declare, three is not the slightest chance that it will be brought back.

PASTOR GETS DEATH THREAT.

The Rev. B. A. Abbott Receives a Black Hand Letter.

Baltimore, July 9.—The Rev. Dr. B. A. Abbott, for 15 years pastor of Harlem Avenue Christian Church, in this city, and now pastor of Union Avenue Christian Church, in St. Louis, Mo., yesterday was threatened with death and dynamite for his activity in a vice crusade, according to a dispatch from St. Louis.

The letter, which was signed with cross bones and a skull, was as follows: "Dynamite is very handy in our days and the silent rifle will come in handy. Keep religion out of politics. They don't mix. Your differentiated Christianity in satanic; your preaching and the likes of you a spiritual emetic. The masses of the people refuse to swallow it. Beware!"

Since going to St. Louis several years ago, Dr. Abbott has been active in fighting vice. In a sermon last Sunday he attacked the politicians for the failure of the police to curb vice conditions.

HUGE SWINDLE REVEALED

Company's Property Worth $738,735; Stock Was Sold $6,000,000.

Philadelphia, July 9—The total valuation placed upon the property of the International Lumber and Development Company, which is in the hands of receivers, was placed at $738,735 in a report filed by the appraisers who were appointed by the Federal Court here to inspect the property. The appraisers spent nearly a month in Mexico with John O. Sheatz, the receiver, going over the property to ascertain what course was practicable to pursue in behalf of the creditors of the concern, five promoters and officers of which are serving prison sentences. Another report will be made later by the receiver.

About $6,000,000 worth of the company's stock had been sold to investors in many parts of the country and the value of its property, as set forth in literature was placed at more than $37,000,00.

DISCUSSION MAY FOLLOW

Informed Suggestions Will be Embodied in Berlin's Answer

Washington, July 9—Disappointed over the failure of the United States to discuss informally its reply to president Wilson's latest note, the German government will embody in its note the suggestions previously transmitted to President Wilson through Ambassador Gerard.

This reply will be handed to the Ambassador in Berlin today or tomorrow and transmitted immediately to this city. It is admitted generally that the note is unsatisfactory, because, further, it endeavors to have the United States notify Berlin of all steamers that leave American ports carrying American citizens together with the destination and probable route. But officials are hopeful that the reply can be made the basis for further negotiations, and that the situation would not become critical.

Officials are said to realize that Germany is being hard pressed at home through the agitation of the military party, and this fact is expected to be taken into consideration by the President in formulating the next note. But it is stated in Administration circles here that the President has resolved, after careful consideration, that the United States, as the chief neutral nation of the world, cannot surrender a single right under international law. Because of this, it is said, he will demand that the right of Americans to the freedom of the seas be accepted; that Germany recognize her responsibility for the loss of American lives when the Lusitania was torpedoed; that if any arrangement be made for notifying Germany of departure of belligerent passenger ships, it be participated in by all the belligerents and be only for the war, and that Germany, and not the United States, assume responsibility for carrying out the visitation and search that is required by international law in the case of vessels suspected of carrying contraband.

The new German reply does not agree to any of the above suggestions it is said. It does, officials declare, open the door to consideration of most of them. The President could have discussed all these matters informally, it is stated, but to have done so in that manner would have established a precedent that might have proven dangerous later.

It is understood that Count von Bernstorff has already conveyed to his government the information that the unofficial suggestions of Germany are considered unsatisfactory here. But it is also understood that he has received information that "under existing conditions" Germany could do no more.

Incidentally officials point out that the German attitude means continued exchanges between the two governments, with the possibility always present that a crisis may arise at any time. There is no attempt today to disguise the disappointment, officials feel over the fact that Germany has not been more conciliatory, although the hope is expressed that the entire question finally will be settled without a diplomatic break.

Even though the present negotiations fail, it is stated, unless there is another flagrant violation of American rights there is little danger of an open break. All late reports from the submarine war zone indicate that the German submarine commanders are endeavoring to ascertain the identity of all vessels before attacking them. The fact that British ships commanders try to escape when signaled to stop makes the German action in sinking their vessels legal under international law, it is asserted.

GOV. STUART TALKS ACROSS CONTINENT

Speaks Over Telephone to Party Gathered in Richmond

EXCHANGE MESSAGES

Mrs. Hamilton Smith Sings "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," Which is Distinctly Heard.

Richmond, July 9—From the Virginia Building on the Panama-Pacific International Exposition grounds at San Francisco Governor Henry Carter Stuart yesterday afternoon (night in Richmond) sent his greetings to the people of Richmond and the State at large over the transcontinental telephone.

In the auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel more than 400 people, including Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson and many other prominent citizens of the city, heard the voice of the Governor as distinctly as if he were speaking to them from the Executive Mansion. Each of his listeners had an ordinary telephone receiver at the ear, and many extended congratulations upon hearing for the first time of the great success of the Virginia Day exercises.

Not only was this the initial transcontinental telephone demonstration attempted with the eastern terminus south of Washington, but for the first time the singing voice of a woman was heard across the continent. Mrs. Hamilton Smith, who is a talented contralto, sang, "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginy" into a transmitter at the Jefferson auditorium.

When the last note of the popular melody had reached the Pacific Coast the Governor thanked Mrs. Smith "on behalf of the Virginians in San Francisco for the beautiful song. The executive of the State, 3,600 miles away added:

"We heard you perfectly."

It was 5:30 o'clock in San Francisco and 8:30 o'clock in Richmond, when it was announced that the telephone circuit across the continent was ready.

The arrangements for the coast-to coast telephone conversations were made by J. E. Boisseau, publicity manager of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, who presided over the gathering at the Richmond end. J. W. Crews, vice president of the company, was the first to speak to Governor Stuart. He congratulated the Governor upon the safe arrival of himself, his staff and the Richmond Light Infantry Blues at San Francisco, and wished the Virginians a safe return to their home State. Mr. Crews invited Governor Stuart to tell his friends assembled in Richmond of the trip to the Pacific Coast and of the success of Virginia Day at the exposition.

After thanking Mr. Crews for the courtesy of the Chesapeake and Potomac Company in affording him the opportunuity to talk to his Virginia friends from across the continent, the Governer reviewed briefly the journey from Richmond to San Francisco, and said that Virginia Day had created more interest than any other feature since the exposition opened; that the program had been carried out splendidly, and that every member of the party which left Richmond last Friday afternoon was well, and sent through him their greetings to the folks "at home."

Speaking in an easily recognizable tone, the Governor said:

"The trip was delightful and without any particular incident. We were several hours late in reaching San Francisco, due principally to the heavy heavy traffic to and from the exposition. The officials of every road over which we have traveled have extended us every courtesy, and every attention was shown us on our westward journey. We have been most courteously and generously treated. Every member of the part is well and happy, and is having a delightful time."

ONE BRYAN LECTURE AT $500

Neutrality League of St. Louis Hesitates Until He Outlines it

St. Louis, July 9—Whether just an ordinary address by William J. Bryan is worth $500 was the subject of a warm debate at a meeting of the neutrality league yesterday. The league, several weeks ago, opened negotiations with Mr. Bryan for a talk at its coming peace pageant, and he replied he would talk for $500 and a guaranteed attendance of 5000.

The League is willing to guarantee the crowd, but has strenuous objections to paying out $500 unless it can be assured Bryan will dwell emphatically on the necessity for the United States placing an embargo on the export of munitions. On the advice of Professor Frederick Bente, of Concordia Seminary, it is decided to have a committee find out the nature of the address Bryan would make.

The reports indicate that in the last few days four inches of rain have fallen in northern counties, and that the Susquehanna's tributaries as well as those of the Lehigh and Delaware will be running high.

The Susquehanna is at eight feet here tonight and will go to about 11 it is predicted.

Advice from Scranton, Towanda, Lebanan, Bellefonte, Chester and other places report serious conditions.

DROWNS IN ROUGH WATER.

Burlington Youth Goes Down as Canoe Capsizes.

Burlington, N. J., July 9.—In the rough water of the Delaware, kicked up by a high wind yesterday afternoon, a canoe in which Albertus Smith and Madison Whomsley were paddling capsized, and Smith was drowned. Several persons on shore saw the craft go over, but feared to venture out, as old rivermen said it was the roughest they had seen in many years.

Whomsley, who got ashore in safety, said he tried to aid Smith, but the latter started to swim in, and he followed. By the time he got in Smith was no where in sight. The body was later recovered. Smith was 19 years old and the son of Edward Smith of Stacy street.

GERMAN FORCES HAMMER ALLIES

Launch Violent Attacks at St. Mihiel, Near Arras, and Ypres

FRENCH ADVANCING

Teutons Make Counter Claims and Report Repulse of Enemy's Attempts to Regain Ditches.

London, July 8—With the French and Germans alternately launching violent attacks, brisk fighting has been renewed in the region north of Arras. The most violent engagements have taken place along the Angres-Souchez road and in the vicinity of the railway station at the latter place. Here the French in a violent night attack preceded by a heavy artillery bombardment succeeded in capturing 800 yards of the German outer line of trenches.

According to the Berlin official report, the Germans have succeeded in driving the French out of all but a small portion of these positions and with hand grenades and petard are fighting to clear the remaining section of the invaders. It is also stated that counter-attacks to regain the ditches from which they were driven have broken down under the German fire.

The French midnight communique cabled from Paris states that the Teutons were able to regain only about 100 yards of the 800 yards of trenches taken by the French.

A strong German attack on the French positions on the Bethune-Arras road made in the early morning was repulsed after sanguinary fighting, Paris claims.

In line with this new offensive the Germans are keeping up their violent efforts in the St. Mihiel section. Their recent gains, which it is hinted here have been heavier than was admitted in the Paris communiques, have been consolidated and French lines have been subjected to a renewed bombardment of great intensity, the French war office tonight reports. Tete-a-Vache and La Vaux-Fery, in the forest of Apremont, are feeling the weight of the Krupps and a violent shelling also is going on to the north of Fliery. Two French attacks in an effort to win back lost trenches between Fay-en-Haye and Le Pretre Forest broke down under the German machine gun fire. Close fighting with petards and hand grenades is going on.

Paris reports the repulse by the British of a German attack on the trenches recently captured by the British southwest of Pilken, near Ypres. Berlin yesterday reported that the British had been driven out of these trenches

How Mrs. Harrod Got Rid of Stomach Trouble

"I suffered with stomach trouble for years and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them at our drug store. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness after eating and from pain in the stomach," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Fort Wayne, Ind.

DOUBLE MURDER BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

Charged with the murder in 1868 of a wealthy but unidentified cattleman and his son, and fixing the allegation that he was a member of a notorious counterfeiting gang which operated in the vicinity of Bedford, Iowa during the period just subsequent to the civil war, Bates Huntsman, 70 years old, a member of a family prominent in Ohio, has been arrested.

Nancy Scribner, a wealthy cattleman, was arrested on one charge of being an accomplice, and the authorities are searching for the third man implicated.

The issurance of the warrants followed an attempt by Samuel Anderson, of Lucas, Iowa to file a civil suit against the men named in the warrants, forcing them to give him a fourth share of $90,000 said to have been found twelve years ago in a chest buried on a farm near Sia, Iowa. Huntsman, Scribner and the third defendant, Anderson told the police, hired Anderson to dig up the chest and they took possession of it.

A gang of counterfeiters in the fall of 1868, it is said, attacked and killed a wealthy cattleman and his son, who had come to Iowa to buy land on which to start a cattle ranch.

The victim brought $90,000 with him in a trunk. This the counterfeiters buried on Anderson's farm.

An English poet has told us,

Murder may pass unpunished for a time,
But tardy justice will o'ertake the crime.

Such cases as that described above brings to mind the case of Eugene Aram, the English school teacher, who killed Daniel Clarke over two hundred years ago. Clarke vanished and thirty years elapsed before his bones were exhumed and the murderer brought to justice.

DISCUSSES THE COST OF PEACE.

In a speech delivered at a dinner in his honor given by the Commercial Club in San Francisco yesterday, Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, predicted an unexpectedly quick ending of the European war. He added that peace would bring about an unprecedented prosperity for the United States. Judge Gray said in part:

"We are approaching the end of a war that has been and still is destroying life and property almost beyond human calculation.

"There is obtainable proof that all countries involved deeply regret that the war was ever started. They are nearing exhaustion. They are sick at heart. We shall at no distant day see peace secured.

"Throughout our own land we are to have industrial peace, and as a consequence greater propserity than ever before.

"We have the opportunity to become the leading nation of the world—financially, commerically, and industrially."

The civilized world earnestly hopes Judge Gary's forecast will be realized as soon as possible. But, according to present signs in the skies, the belligerents are not preparing for peace. On the contrary they are sending in large orders for munitions and miscellaneous supplies and some observers are inclined to think conditions next summer will be virtually as those now existing.

POISONED BY COCOANUT PIE.

Ptomaine poisoning, believed to be the result of eating cocoanut custard in a restaurant in Westerly, R. I., caused the death of Timothy Sulivan and the illness of 26 others. Julia Savage, a young daughter of Patrick Savage, has developed meningitis, and her recovery is doubtful. Raymond A. T. J. Crane, of Philadelphia, who was on his way to Eastern Point for the remainder of the season, stopped off and ate a piece of the pie. He was taken to a lodging house in a critical condition. All the other members of the Sullivan family and all of the Savage family are ill.

In this hustling age thousands of persons, especially in the large cities virtually take all their meals at lunch counters. Indigestion prevails to an alarming extent among old and young alike and occasionally patrons of the cheap eating houses find themselves victims of ptomaine poisoning

There is a general demand for pie from those who patronize lunch counters nad in order to please all classes of customers every variety, in season, out of season, is on on the menu. Many varieties are harmless, but some are not, and the greatest care should be exercised by persons who imagine a lunch would not be a lunch without this adjunct.

It may not be generally known, but it is a fact nevertheless, that all custard pies after they are twelve or fifteen hours old, are dangerous. No risk is run in eating them while they are fresh, but it would be safer to avoid them when it is known they were baked the day before. Mixtures of eggs and milk after having been cooked are said to generate a poison after a certain number of hours.

Many years ago a young man died in West Virginia after eating tapioca pudding which had been cooked the previous day. A number of cases of poisoning, some in Alexandria, have been attributed to the use of stale cream puffs.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT'S STORM.

Revised accounts of Wednesday night's storm which struck portions of Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri, Indiana and Illinois do not materially cut down the casualty list.

Twenty-seven dead, ten missing, and property loss of more than $1,000,000, is the report from Cincinnati. A score of buildings were destroyed at Washington Courthouse, Ohio, and great damage to crops throughout the State is reported. The property loss in Kentucky is placed at $1,000,000. Seven persons were killed in Missouri. The town of St. Peters was almost wiped out. Three dead. 50 injured, and property loss of $500,000 is the toll in Indiana. Property loss of fully $500,000 is reported in Illinois.

The weather in this city and vicinity was sultry until towards the close of yesterday, when a high westerly wind accompanied by showers set in. The temperature fell rapidly and last night was unseasonably cool. These conditions were doubtless the aftermath of the terrible tornado in the west.

What is claimed to be the highest gas well ever drilled in Western Pennsylvania was struck Wednesday on the farm of George Spiegel, four miles from McKeesport. The owners estimate the flow at 45,000,000 feet a day. So far it has not been controlled, and the roar can be heard for more than four miles.

William J. Bryan, who originally intended to address a big noonday meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society at Chicago, was compelled to change his plans. Frederick Carlin, 20 years old, died of a fractured skull at the Homeopathic Hospital, in Wilmington, Del., yesterday morning as a result of a fight with Harry Dych and Louis Rosenfeld at a boarding house. C. E. Cumberson, a capitalist, was shot twice through the shoulder yesterday in Redwood City, Cal., by Carl Auerswald, a discharged employe, who previously had fired the house, barn and garage on the Cumberson estate. Auerswald died on the way to jail, it is thought from poison. Cumberson's wounds were believed not to be serious.

Evidently roasted to death, the body of Marcus Jones, aged about 45 years, was found yesterday morning wedged between the frame work of the cabin and the engine of the tug Champlin, at Havre de Grace, Md., Wednesday. It is believed that Jones was intoxicated and fell while trying to board the boat Wednesday night. The body was in such a position that it required two hours to extricate it

Clarence H. Mackay, millionaire president of the Postal Telegraph Company, yesterday applied for permission to carry a revolver for his own protection. The request was granted by Judge Dodge in Mineola, N. Y. The Mackay estate, at Roslyn, has been guarded since the attempt to assassinate J. P. Morgan. It is reported that Mr. Mackay has received a letter threatening his life.

As a result of investments in coal lands in eastern Kentucky Representative C Bascom Slemp, of the Ninth Virginia district, will take rank with the wealthiest men of his native state. It is reported that Mr. Slemp's income next year will be around $40,000 alone from his coal holdings in Kentucky, and in three years' time his income will double, making $80,000. This sum does not include Mr. Slemp's other investments.

Seventeen persons were killed and 50 injured, some probably fatally, as the result of the trolley wreck on the slope of Queenston Heights Wednesday night. Racing to catch a steamed for Toronto, a special car of the International Railway, loaded with 121 passengers, left the rails on a sharp curve and plunged into a gully 15 feet below. The car struck a tree as it toppled over and was nearly cut in two. All the dead were residents of Toronto.

Letters in the possession of the family of Joseph Eldridge Smoot, of Richmond, the young husband who dangerously wounded his bride of four months, and then turned the pistol on himself, inflicting a flesh wound in the forehead, are relied upon to mitigate the young man's crime when he is put on trial for attempted murder. It is said at the Virginia Hospital that the condition of Mrs. Smoot is critical, and it can not be stated whether or not she will recover from her wounds. Her husband is improving and will recover.

President Wilson may be formally and publicly requested by the Anti-Saloon League of America to take the pledge as the result of a suggestion presented yesterday by Richmond Pearson Hobson, former Congressman of Alabama. He called for a dry White House and asked that the Chief Executive be "urged to practice total abstinence as an example and banish all intoxicating liquors from the Capitol and to hold civil service as it is established by railroads and other big organizations."

Moved by speeches of men prominent in church and business life of the South, 300 Southern men and women, delegates to the World's Christian Endeavor Convention in session in Chicago, yesterday acknowledged brotherhood with the negro race and determined to extend to it the hand of fellowship. Out of this idea is to grow the Southern extension committee of the Christian Endeavor, which the Rev. Ira Landrith, of Nashville, Tenn., calls the begmning of the Interdenominational Union of the Colored People.

A special train on the Pennsylvania carrying race horses from the recent meeting at Latonia to the Eastern tracks was wrecked at Terrace Park a short distance from Cincinnati during the big storm Wednesday night Nineteen of what are considered the best horses that ran at the meeting were killed. Governor Stuart participated in the elaborate ceremonies at the Panama-Pacific exposition yesterday in celebration of Virginia Day. Virginia's building is a faithful copy of George Washington's residence at Mount Vernon. Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, official hostess, wore a Martha Washington gown at the reception, and a number of other participants were decked out in colonial garb. The Virginia Blues, a body of national guardsmen, and two battalions of United States cavalry acted as Gov. Stuart's escort to the grounds. Capt. W. W. Baker, of the Confederate army, is chairman of the ceremonies which included the planting of an oak tree brought from Richmond.

Harry L. Chittum, of Richmond, committed suicide last night shortly after 10 o'clock by swallowing carbolic acid.

Fire shortly after 3 o'clock this morning destroyed the Yale cottage and several other cottages at Ocean View. The Kimball hotel and Richmond hotel were burning at 3:30 o'clock and indications were that several other cottages would be burned down.

Writs for a primary election have been issued by the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth James to about seventy of the counties and cities in the State for primaries to be held this fall. The poll books to be used in the coming primaries have been mailed out by Mr. James' office to the clerks of each county and city.

McGowan was run over by a string of cars that were being switched and both legs almost severed from his body. He was rushed to St. Francis Hospital, but died shortly after his arrival there.

Captain Miller, in charge of the Halifax Street station of the Petersburg Fire Department, is confined to his home as the result of a personal difficulty with Harry Williams, the driver of the Halifax street engine, which occurred Wednesday morning. Captain Miller is suffering from one or more wounds inflicted with a knife by Williams, and was unable to appear in Police Courty esterday. The trouble is alleged to have grown out of a suspension by Captain Miller, of Williams for drunkenness.

The demand for automobiles and the means of Virginians for purchasing them are enormously on the increase, according to the reckoning of Chief Clerk James H. Hayes, Jr., of the office of the Secretary of the Comonwealth B. O. James. The total number of licenses issued from the office up to yesterday for this year was 18,146, which is an increase of 4,000 over last year's total. It is expected that 20,000 auto licenses will be issued for the year 1915.

Governor Stuart is the possessor of a watch chain 39 links in length, carved out of the seeds of a gigantic Texas watermelon. The odd gift was received through the mails at the executive office in Richmond yesterday. The trophy will serve as an appropriate ornament with which the executive may adorn his waistcoat when he attends watermelon feasts and agricultural fairs this summer and fall. The donor of the watermelon seed watch chain is B. Emden, of Houston.

Martha and Henry Moody, of Clifton Forge, are minus of from $246 of real money, being swindled out of that sum by one W. B. Williams, of Ohio, who showed up there some months ago and told them of the death of an uncle, old and wealthy, in the Buckeye State. Williams declared that no will was left, and that he was the representative of the estate, seeking to get a list of all the heirs and to establish relationship. But he needed money for his expenses, and could they let him have a trifle. They could and did. Then Williams left. After waiting a time in patience, the Moodys began to make some inquiries. They soon discovered that Williams was a faker. Williams was subsequently located in Ironton where he was doing more business. He was arrested.

MAY LEAD TO PROTEST

England Claims That the Germans Are Favored

Washington, July 9—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador formally applied to the State Department yesterday for a definition of the American government's view as to whether English patriotic societies or other unofficial agencies violate neutrality laws in sending subjects of Great Britain from the United States to volunteer in the British Army.

Conferences between the Departments of State and Justice will be held before an answer is given to this question, from which a serious diplomatic controversy may develop.

The practice of returning volunteers to England has prevailed since the beginning of the European war, and it is said that the British government is prepared to register an emphatic protest if the United States takes the position that it is illegal, The return of indictments at San Francisco against five persons charged with enlisting recruits for the British army is understood to have precipitated the ambassador's action.

GERMANY'S REPLY

May Be Delivered Today—Believed in Washington It Will Be Disappointing.

Berlin, July 9—The German reply to the American note regarding the Lusitania and submarine warfare, according to information obtained here, probably will be delivered on Saturday, July 10, or possibly even today.

The general tenor and motive of the government behind these proposals may be communicated confidentially to the leading representatives of the press today, but it is understood that the publication of the tert in Berlin will be defected until the afternoon of the day on which it is presented at Washington.

Washington, July 9—Based on information transmitted through Ambassador Gerard, and apparently authorized press dispatches from Berlin, the conclusion is reached here that the note which Germany is understood to be about to send to the United States contains little or nothing that satisfies the views of this government regarding the submarine issue.
